

DOUBLE DREAM

*A psychic state in dream time. The young male and female dressed in fresh seaweed and iris leaves are the internal masculine and feminine aspects of the larger figures. It is they who know about soul meeting, whereas the larger figures seem unaware of this internal knowing and walk away. Their leaves and weeds are course and withered and cannot be refreshed unless they look back and within.
They stand reflected in a pool of consciousness, yet they are unreflecting.
Their inner figures know, wait and reach for one another ~ a tension unresolved.*
